

GILDA MANFRIN_CASE HISTORY_01/CORNELIANI

TRADITION, UPDATED

STARTING POINT

how can a brand built on product excellence develop an appealing cultural and editorial presence?

FROM PRODUCT-CENTRIC STORYTELLING

TO EDITORIAL FORMATS

01_CONCEPT

The creative strategy and editorial direction for Corneliani works on evolving the brand's traditional codes into a contemporary visual language, not only preserving, but putting the accent on its heritage, craftsmanship and sense of timeless elegance.

02_HOW

Utilising the VALUES - PRODUCT - PEOPLE framework, we've built a series of projects where the storytelling still centres around the product and its excellence, but expands also towards other formats where core values of the brand as well as the people in its community are celebrated. Each project becoming a key element of a multi-faceted, engaging narrative.

VALUES

- Mantua heritage
- Excellent Craftsmanship
- Cultural and Environmental Sustainability

PRODUCT

- Sartorial details
- Elevated essentials
- Classic Tailoring

PEOPLE

- New faces casting
- Company team
- External collaborators that embrace similar values

A GUIDE TO CONSCIOUS ELEGANCE

A series of abstract still life images and articles, created to establish Corneliani's manifesto of traditional elegance and sustainability.

VALET MAGAZINE

Milan 2020

For the Eveningwear Collection, we have worked with the magazine's creative team to create a series of analogue images that portray Milanese young men around the city by night.

03_FINAL CONSIDERATIONS

This selection represents six formats built to answer the project's founding question — how a brand built on product excellence can develop a cultural and editorial presence around it. Working across values, product and people, these projects moved Corneliani's storytelling beyond the object itself, into places, people and independent editorial voices that speak the same language.

Beyond this selection, the same system extended into further formats — including digital and social activity that drove +40% average reach against the brand's standard content — confirming that a more complex editorial approach could translate into concrete engagement, not only visual coherence.
